Field Report

The Department of History, Raiganj Surendranath Mahavidyalaya has conducted an educational tour at Gour on 07/06/2024. The tour comprised of the students of B.A. HONOURS VI Semester (SEC 2) accompanied by four faculty members of the department, Asst. prof and HOD Chandana Saha, Tushar Kanti Roy, Ranjit Roy and Krishna Roy. All the students were directed to gather at college gate at 9:00AM. and started our journey.

General Information about Gour & Adina Mosque:

From the period of Mauryas, the region of Gour and Pandua was known as Pundrabardhana. During the Guptas the name of this place was Pundravardhana bhukti. They were succeeded by Sasanka. He was the king of Gauda with Karnasubarna as his capital and ruled for almost 3 decades.

During the early medieval period, Gour was the capital city. Pandua, once the alternative seat of power to Gour, boasts the third largest concentration of ancient Muslim monuments in Bengal.

Objective of the Tour:

The main objective of this tour was to come in close engagement with historical events and get an opportunity to develop a fuller appreciation for those who lived before us.

We started our journey and reached at 11:30 AM at the location. At the location teachers were advised all the students to gather much information from various sources about the places and monuments which will going to visit and make notes what they get anything significant about the visited place.

Places Visited:

- Kotwali Darwaza
- Lottan Masjid
- Lukachuri Gate
- Firoz Minar
- Fath Khan's Tomb
- Adina Mosque

Conclusion: The day was spent very enjoyable manner. All the faculties of the department shared various information regarding the historical significance about the place. Students also shared their point of view and their findings information. We returned safely at 7:00 pm at college premises and the departmental head advised the students to inform after reaching their home safely.
