The Human Rights Day, December 10th, 2023 was observed by The Department of Political Science, Rajgani Surendranath Mahavidyalaya by organizing a One Day Special Lecture on the "Indian Federal System: Theory and Practice".

In presence of Dr. Chaitanya Patil, Principal, RSM, Dr. Abhinav Das, Coordinator, IQAC, Sri. Pratik Manohar, Assistant Professor, IQAC, Department of Political Science, Sakshita Patil, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, the program began with a felicitation ceremony for the guest speaker Dr. Sakshita Ghosh, Assistant Professor, Rajgani University, who was accompanied by an inaugural song sung by Miss Mallabikha, a student of the department. The ceremonial lamp was, thereafter, lighted by the guest and the honored dignitaries and the academic proceedings began. The Welcome and Inaugural Address was given by the Sri. Pratik Manohar, IQAC. The lecture titled the young addressee to the topic of discussion. She was articulate in her approach and detailed in her explanation. Moving on, the Special Decision Speech was presented by the respected Dr. Chaitanya Patil. He articulately expounded the idea of Federalism in India, the concept of Human Rights. His analysis was followed by a brief note by Dr. Abhinav Das, Coordinator, IQAC, who described the

Theory of Federalism and its place in the Indian Constitution from a historical perspective. She then, the proceedings to its conclusion with the much awaited presentation of the Guest Speaker, Dr. Sakshita Ghosh, Assistant Professor, Rajgani University, Pratik Manohar, Sri Pratik Manohar, who talked about the constitutional development of Federalism in India, the various forms of Federalism and critically examined the state of the union in the country. She emphasized on the importance of Federalism in safeguarding human rights and the present social reform of the nation. It was truly enlightening for the students and the audience to have her speak. Finally, Dr. Vikas Chaudhary was presented by Sri. Sakshita Patil, Assistant Professor and Program Coordinator, Department of Political Science. The program, in words, was anchored and moderated beautifully by Mrs. Ujjwal Bhattacharjee, SACT II, Department of Political Science.
