- HEI Response:

As per the CBCS curriculum of the University of Gour Banga (affiliating University), students can write their answer copies either in Bengali or in English. The National Education Policy 2020 also advocates that "wherever possible, the medium of education will be the mother tongue/local language/regional language". Aligned with the vision of NEP 2020, University of Gour Banga aims at promoting multilingualism through English as well as local languages. Accordingly, some of the Projects Reports have been written by the students in their mother tongue, i.e., Bengali, and they have been reported in the SSR in their original form. Apart from these Project Reports, all other official supporting documents are provided in English.
