ANTI RAGGING CELL RSM

The Anti-Ragging Cell of Raiganj Surendranath Mahavidyalaya always play a crucial role in ensuring student safety and well-being by strictly prohibiting any form of ragging or harassment during the pre-Covid period (2018-19 to 2019-20) as well as Post-Covid Period (2022-23 to 2023-24). Comprising faculty members, staff, and student representatives, the Cell actively monitored campus activities to prevent bullying, hazing, or any related misconduct. It organized awareness programs to educate students on the harmful effects of ragging and fosters a culture of respect and inclusivity. The Cell provides confidential channels for reporting incidents and promptly addresses complaints with appropriate disciplinary actions. By upholding a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging, the Anti-Ragging Cell of RSM helps create a positive and supportive learning environment where every student feels valued and protected.

ANNUAL REPORT 2018-19

The Anti-Ragging Cell is one of the key bodies established in Raiganj Surendranath Mahavidyalaya to ensure a healthy and supportive environment for students while they pursue their educational goals.

Information about the Anti-Ragging Committee is displayed on notice boards across the campus. At the beginning of the academic session and then in the mid half of the session two respective TICs [Dr. P.Roy Chowdhury (10-6-2018 to 30-11-2018) and Dr. Shankar Roy (1-12-2018 to 31-05-2019)] along with the statutory committee members, addressed newly admitted students. During this session, the provisions of the anti-ragging policy were explained in detail, and the penalties for any violations were clearly highlighted. This information was also displayed at various locations on campus. Additionally, staff members guided newly admitted students in their respective classes about these rules. As a result of these efforts, the committee had not received a single complaint related to ragging and the campus continued to conduct regular awareness campaign about the issue to maintain a safe and welcoming environment for all students.

ANNUAL REPORT 2019-20

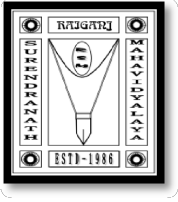

The Anti-Ragging Cell at Raiganj Surendranath Mahavidyalaya plays a crucial role in fostering a healthy and supportive environment for students as they pursue their academic goals. Information about the Anti-Ragging Committee is prominently displayed on notice boards throughout the campus as well as in College website.

At the start of the academic session and again midway through the session, two respective Teacher-in-Charges [Dr. K.R. Bhattacharyya (10-6-2019 to 30-11-2019) and Dr. Rakhee Das Biswas (1-12-2019 to 31-05-2020)], along with the other statutory members, addressed newly admitted students. During these sessions, they thoroughly explained the provisions of the anti-ragging policy, including the consequences of any violations. This information was also displayed at various campus locations, and staff members further guided new students in their respective classes about these rules.

Thanks to these proactive measures, the Cell did not receive a single complaint related to ragging. The campus continues to conduct regular awareness campaigns to maintain a safe and welcoming environment for all students.

ANNUAL REPORT 2022-23

The Anti Ragging Cell was newly constructed under the TIC Dr. Abhinandan Das (1-12-2021 to 31-05-2022). Objectives of the Anti Ragging Cell was defined during this phase. The members of the Cell decided and finalized Anti Ragging Regulations for the institution, in accordance with the prevailing regulations of various statutory bodies. It was decided to conduct Anti Ragging Cell meeting every month, or in case of any complaint registered— as and when basis.

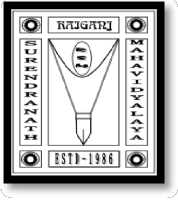

It was also decided to ensure submission of undertaking in the prescribed format from the candidate concerned on anti-ragging at the time of admission. Anti Ragging Cell organized different awareness campaign throughout the year. In the meeting decisions have been taken to suggest measures to tighten vigil against any act which constitutes ragging. This measure helped for prevention of ragging and made the campus a ragging free zone.

Raiganj Surendranath Mahavidyalaya attempted to adopt measures for prohibition of ragging to eliminate the scourge of ragging as per the definition given— in the relevant regulations, including the formation of the Anti-Ragging Squad, Mentoring Cell on ragging etc. As a result of these endeavours, the Cell had not received any complaint of ragging and the campus remained a ragging free zone which is conducive to academic growth and development.

ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24

After the appointment of the new Principal, Dr. Chandan Roy, the old Anti-Ragging Cell was revitalized with some minor changes and additions. An Anti-Ragging Squad was also established, consisting of students tasked with monitoring the behavior of their peers. The Cell began its work by conducting regular awareness campaigns and putting up Anti-Ragging posters across the campus.

Efforts were made to ensure that undertakings in the form of affidavits were obtained from students, parents, guardians, and staff members of the institute. The Cell's Convenor, Dr. Sujoy Ghosh, held regular meetings with members to ensure that all actions taken were in accordance with the guidelines set forth by the relevant regulatory bodies. Both the Cell and the Anti-Ragging Squad worked diligently to prevent and eliminate incidents of ragging within the college premises. Raiganj Surendranath Mahavidyalaya has committed to creating a safe and supportive environment for students by strictly enforcing a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging. It has also made significant efforts to comply with UGC regulations and the West Bengal Educational Act of 1983 regarding ragging prevention. The institution focuses on sensitizing students about the harmful effects of ragging and the potential disciplinary actions against offenders.

As a result of these proactive measures, the Cell did not receive a single complaint related to ragging. The campus continues to conduct regular awareness campaigns to maintain a safe and welcoming environment for all students.
